

Iran

Ultra-conservative Mahmud Ahmadinejad is elected president. His nuclear ambitions cause huge concern within the international community.

Hiroshima

In Iraq, 40 GIs are killed in less than a week. The number of American soldiers who have died since the American invasion in March 2003 has reached 1800. Meanwhile, Washington is getting more and more bellicose towards Tehran. Iran wishes to carry on with its nuclear programme, despite warnings from the international community, especially as the world marks the 60th anniversary of Hiroshima.
